A large crowd visited the Park yesterday, Many are accustomed to wait till later in the season before vialting this resort, whereby they miss many of the lovellest features of the sylvan retreat. Just now it is at its best; the trees are bright with the delicate green of new leaves, the ground and soft the air balmy and fragrant with the nameless charms of Spring and the scent of growing grass. The artificial accomodations, the buildings and swings, are as good as ever, and the summer days among the trees cannot show half the beauties of early spring. Those who have once visited the Park in April or early May will never miss an opportunity for repeating the enjoyment of such a trip. SPRING and Summer stock just re-ceived. An elegant and complete line of Suitings, Pantatoonings and Overcoat-ings, which we will make up in the best style and at low prices. C. HESS & SONS, 1321 & 1323 Market Street.

If this prevails this year the next seven Eabbaths will be perfect, for the sky yesterday was unclouded, the breezes soft, and all nature seemed arrayed in her loveliest garb to greet the day.

Nature was closely followed in this respect by the ladies yesterday. They emerged from their Lenten seclusion in bright array. Not all of them went to church—not all even of those who had new bonnets and new gowns, for several bright costumes of the latest make were seen at the park, where a large crowd breathed the fresh air in the afternoon. SERVICES AT THE CATHEDRAL. Almost the Entire day Occupied-Interesting

At the Cathedral the three altars were profusely decorated with flowers and brilliant with burning candles and gas lights.

The services occupied nearly the whole day, commencing at 5:30 A. M., when mass was celebrated by Monsignor Sullimass was celebrated by Monsignor Sullivan, V. G., and a short practical sermon preached to the large congregation present. At the 90 clock service father McElligott was the officiating priest, and at both masses large numbers of the members received Holy Communion. At 10:30 a. M. there was solemn Pontifical High Mass, Bishop Kain being the celebrant, Monsignor Sullivan assistant priest, Father Parke Deacon, and Father McElligott Subbascon. On this occasion the last-named, clergyman preached an eloquent sermon on the Resurrection, and at the close of this service the Papal Benediction was given.

The music of the occasion was Farmer's Mass in B flat, and was rendered by the Kain, who was assisted by the same clergymen as at the late service in the morning. The Bishop made a brief address appropriate to the occasion and explained the Catholic dectrine of the Transubstantiation, after which there was the solemn and beautiful ceremony of the Procession of the Blessed Sacrament.

The choir rendered excellent music. It was composed of those at the morning service augmented by the very acceptable addition of Mrs. Geo. B. Caldwell, Mrs. Lee, of Erie, Pa., and Mrs. William Weir.
